HEBD Task Force Charge

Incorporating HEBD Principles in Health IT

Provide ASTP with recommendations on promising practices, challenges, and resources to support health and human services organizations to incorporate HEBD principles into the design, build, implementation, use, and monitoring of health IT

- The recommendations should include:
 - Considerations that health and human services organizations can use to include HEBD in health IT
 - Recommendations for ASTP on potential next steps to advance the implementation of HEBD principles in the design, build, implementation, use and monitoring of health IT
- Recommendations Due: May 2025

Clarifying Points from the HEBD TF Co-Chairs

- Considerations that health and human services organizations can use to include HEBD in health IT
 - Focus on healthcare delivery organizations that use standards-based health IT, specifically hospitals, clinics, human services COB's (and actors with which they exchange data).
 - Focus on data as foundational to these considerations; specifically:
 - a) HEBD approaches to the capture, use, harmonization, and exchange of health data; and
 - b) Which types of data should be leveraged by health and human services organizations to better promote health equity
 - Highlight existing small-scale implementations for potential expansion
- Recommendations for ASTP on potential next steps to advance the implementation of HEBD principles in the design, build, implementation, use, and monitoring of health IT
 - These recommendations can be focused on the future and going forward
 - Recommendations can relate to coordination, policy, standards, etc.
 - Recommendations can relate both to data strategy as well as wider-scale technology strategy

Task Force Framework for Recommendations and Discussion

Task Force Discussion

Hannah Galvin, Task Force Co-Chair

Hung Luu, Task Force Co-Chair

Discussion Questions

- Any there missing or suggested edits to the framework, themes, or subthemes?
- Are there any themes/subthemes where the Task Force requests or suggests a presentation by a subject-matter expert (SME) to help the Task Force develop recommendations?
 - All presentations to be completed by Mid-February
 - Strategic use of SME perspectives for specific and/or technical considerations

Drafting Recommendations

Recommendations Structure

HEBD Themes

- Inclusive Representation and Participation
- Accessibility
- Privacy
- Transparency
- Harm and Bias Prevention

Health Equity by Design Task Force Charge

Incorporate HEBD principles into design, build, implementation, use, and monitoring of health IT (general charge)

Health and Human Services Organizations (sub-bullet 1)

Guiding Principles

- Include the Diverse Voices of Individuals with Lived Experiences
- Improve Personal Health Outcomes
- Advance Population Health Equity and Justice
- Ensure Personal Control
- Design Inclusive Solutions
- Ensure Accountability and Transparency
- Mitigate Bias and Discrimination in Health Technologies
- Prevent, Reduce, and Remediate Harm
- Promote Trust
- Build on Existing Frameworks and Technologies

Recommendation Example 1

Theme: Transparency

Subtheme: Data standardization and collection across different types of data

Subtheme: Improving data collection and quality

Task Force recognizes the importance of collecting race/ethnicity/language (REL) and sexual orientation/gender identity (SOGI) data to advance health equity. Task Force recommends:

- (1) Health and human service agencies use Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC)/Office of Management and Budget (OMB) standards for measures.
- (2) ASTP work in coordinating role to align state and federal agencies with CDC/OMB standards.

Recommendation Example 2

Theme: Privacy

Subtheme: Data segmentation and consent

Guiding Principles: Promote Trust, Ensure Personal Control

Task Force recognizes that some individuals may have specific considerations for their REL and SOGI data. Task Force recommends:

- (1) Health and human services organizations allow patients to indicate if they prefer that their data are not shared in specific circumstances.
- (2) ASTP fund ongoing standards development and implementation guidance work related to data segmentation and consent.
